

Important Information for Members of a Federally-Recognized American Indian or Native Alaskan Tribe

Is your child a member of a federally-recognized American Indian or Native Alaskan tribe? If so, you will not have to pay a premium for your child's healthcare coverage.

To stop owing a premium, send a copy of the proof of your child's tribal membership to the Premium Collections Unit by mail, fax, or email. Be sure to include your child's name and MO HealthNet identification number with your proof.
