

Community Champions Awards

Nomination Guidelines

Nominees for a Molina Healthcare Community Champions award can be volunteers, service providers or employees of any recognized and legitimate organization, who demonstrate selfless dedication to improving the quality of life in the community they serve. To nominate individuals or organizations, please complete the nomination form including a one paragraph essay (125 words or less) on why your candidate(s) merits recognition. All those submitting a nomination, will be invited to join us at the Community Champions Awards dinner on October 25, 2012.

The criteria for nominating an individual or organization are:

- Overall community contributions and involvement
- Achievements or qualities that qualify a nominee for consideration
- Specific results or influence of nominee's activities

All the nominations will be evaluated by a selection panel on the basis of the information contained in the nomination forms and essays. Please feel free to include other supporting materials, including letters of commendation and additional biographical information.

Each award winner will receive a $1,000 grant for the community organization of their choice.
