Adverse Childhood Experiences Screening Webinar

This is an advisory notification to Molina Healthcare of California (MHC) network providers with registration details for the fourth webinar in the Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) Aware "Implementation with Intention" series on April 27, 2023.

Rachel Gilgoff, MD, will join series facilitators Chris Bradley, PhD, and Leena Singh, DrPH, MPH, to provide tools and strategies for developing a clinical response to ACE screening and toxic stress in a busy clinical practice. They will discuss how to talk to patients about ACEs and evidence-based strategies to help patients build resilience and mitigate toxic stress.

What you need to know:

This webinar will help participants understand and advance the key decisions that must be made in selecting their clinic's approach to ACE screening and their clinical response. We will focus on helping participants determine who they will screen, how they will prepare their clinical response for treating toxic stress, and how they will integrate ACE screening into their workflow.

Learning Objectives:

- List the key elements of a clinical response to ACEs and toxic stress
- Describe how to have a conversation with your patient after an ACE screen using the triad of adversity, distress, and strengths
- Discuss a tiered approach for evidence-based strategies to help patients build resilience and mitigate toxic stress

When this is happening:

Implementation with Intention Webinar #4

- Topic: Prepare Your Clinical Response
- Date: Thursday, April 27
