Overpayments Now Available in Availity

As of March 18th, 2023, Overpayment information is now available on the Availity Essentials portal. This new streamlined, electronic process will help eliminate mail and fax for faster dispute resolution, and keep you current with overpayment requests.

To ensure you have access, check to see if you have the Claim Status role within Availity. If you don't have access, contact the administrator for your office to determine if access is needed.
