

You need health coverage. Renew now!

What to expect:

The Public Health Emergency is ending, and your Medicaid coverage may be, too.

Action to take:

It's important for everyone to make sure their Medicaid enrollment is up to date – or risk losing coverage. Here's how to renew your Medicaid coverage:

Online: Log in to wahealthplanfinder.org.

By Phone: Call Customer Support Center at 855-WAFINDER (855) 923-4633 or TTY: (855) 627-9604.

By Mail: Visit www.hca.wa.gov and download an Application for Health Care Coverage and mail to:

Washington Healthplanfinder
P.O. Box 946
Olympia, WA 98507

Complete your renewal paperwork today to avoid losing your coverage!

Items you may need:

- ✓ Social Security numbers
- ✓ Birthdates
- ✓ Passport, legal status card, or other immigration numbers for legal immigrants who need health care coverage
- ✓ Income information for all adults and all minors age 14 or older who are required to file a tax return

No longer qualify for Medicaid?

You may qualify for an affordable Marketplace or Medicare health plan. You can save on benefits like low copays, virtual care at no cost, and much more.
