CalHOPE Program

This is an advisory notification to Molina Healthcare of California (MHC) network providers regarding the California HOPE (CalHOPE) Program. CalHOPE delivers crisis support for communities impacted by a national disaster. This is a Crisis Counseling Assistance and Training Program (CCP) funded by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), and run by the California Department of Health Care Services (DHCS).

Does COVID-19 have you feeling stresses, anxious, and lonely? CalHOPE is here for you, Hope will persevere

California HOPE Provides:

- Free resources, including a “playbook” with tips for managing stress
- A call line to talk about your struggles and get emotional support from someone who has persevered through tough situations
- Call (833) 371-HOPE (4673)

Tips to Manage Stress:

- Take a break from the news if it’s causing you to feel overwhelmed
- Maintain social contact by phone, text, or email with those who support you
- Treat your body kindly, eat healthy foods, avoid excessive alcohol, and exercise as you are able

Please visit the CalHOPE Website for more information at:
