

Training on Behavioral Health Services

Information for Behavioral Health providers

The Ohio Department of Medicaid (ODM) and Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services (ODMHAS) is holding an online training from 10 to 11:30 a.m. on Thurs., Aug. 27, 2020.

The training is to provide additional technical assistance regarding the delivery of behavioral health (BH) services via telehealth during the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) State of Emergency.

For additional information read the "August 19, 2020 – Training on Behavioral Health Services Delivered Via Telehealth: Part II" MITS Bits by visiting the ODM BH Provider Website at <https://bh.medicaid.ohio.gov> and selecting the "MITS BITS & Newsletters" page.

To register visit: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/5775554669521378315>.

Note: This training is a follow-up to the webinars held on April 1-2, 2020, on delivering BH services via telehealth.

For additional information from Molina during the COVID-19 pandemic, visit our provider website and under the "Communications" tab select the "COVID-19 (Coronavirus)" page and then "Provider Bulletins about COVID-19."
