Molina community baby shower - Albuquerque

Let's celebrate you and your new baby!

Molina Healthcare of New Mexico invites the community and members to our enrollment event focused on new and expectant mothers! Don't miss this opportunity to connect, learn and celebrate your journey into parenthood. The first 20 mothers in attendance will receive a diaper bag with baby items.

Join us to:

- Gather information about pregnancy and infant safety
- Obtain more information on resources available through Medicaid
- Health screenings available
- Molina will have refreshments available for individuals who attend
