Opioids and the Opioid Epidemic

About Opioids:

Opioids are a type of pain medicine. They can help people manage illness, injury or surgery. Doctors prescribe opioids to reduce pain signals to the brain. All these are opioids:

- Codeine
- Fentanyl
- Hydrocodone
- Morphine
- Oxycodone
- Oxycontin
- Heroin—an illegal kind of opioid

Opioids are highly addictive. Taking opioids without a medical reason or overusing them can cause addiction-fast. In fact, opioid addiction is an epidemic in the U.S. Every day, about 91 Americans die from opioid overdose, according to the CDC (Centers for Disease Control).

MolinaHealthcare.com

Taking too many doses of opioids can have dangerous results. If your doctor prescribes an opioid medication, take it only as directed. Taking more than your doctor has prescribed can result in:

- Weak breathing
- Constipation
- Blocked pain signals
- Mental confusion
- Nausea
- Organ damage
- Death—Opioids are so strong, even one large dose can kill you.

How do you know if you're depending too much on opioids? Watch for these signs:

- You keep raising the dose to control pain
- When you use less medicine or quit, you get symptoms of withdrawal like stomach cramps, muscle aches or cold sweats

What are the signs of abuse?

- Using your medicine with other drugs your doctor did not order
- Too many refills
- Injecting the medicine or snorting it

Talk to your doctor about how opioid medicines can affect you.

Women's Health Screenings

Cervical Cancer Screening:

If you are 21 to 64 years of age, talk to your provider about getting a Pap test. This test checks for changes in your cervix. A Pap test is the best way to find cervical cancer early.

Cervical cancer is cancer that forms in the tissues (cells) of the cervix. The cervix is the organ that connects the uterus and vagina. You could have cervical cancer and not know it.

A Pap test can find unhealthy cells in the cervix that can turn into cancer. A Pap test can find cervical cancer early, when it is easier to treat. You have a better chance of curing cervical cancer if it is found early.

A Human Papillomavirus (HPV) test checks for the HPV virus that can cause the cells in the cervix to change. It can also provide more information when a Pap test produces unclear results.

- Women 21 to 65 years of age should have a Pap test every 3 years.
- Women 30 to 65 years of age should have co-testing every 5 years or have a Pap test every 3 years.

Important: You should continue to test for cervical cancer even if you have received the HPV vaccine. If you have abnormal results or other risk factors, you may need to test more often.

MolinaHealthcare.com

Chlamydia Screening:

If you are 16 to 24 years of age, ask your provider to test you for Chlamydia and other Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs) once a year. STIs can cause other health problems. They can prevent you from becoming pregnant. If you are already pregnant, they may affect your baby's health.

Breast Cancer Screening:

Breast cancer screening means checking your breast for cancer before there are signs or symptoms. Mammograms help your provider check your breasts for possible cancer.

If you have had breast cancer, other breast problems or have a family history of breast cancer, you might need to get mammograms before age 50. Talk to your provider about when to start and how often you should have a mammogram.

There are three ways to help detect breast cancer early. They are:

- Mammogram – Complete every 2 years for women 50 to 74 years of age.
- Clinical breast exams – Complete once a year in your provider's office.
- Breast self-awareness – Report any changes in your breasts to your provider.

Breast cancer can be treated if found early.

Attention: Healthy Michigan Plan Enrollees

Did you know you could be eligible for a $50 incentive or a reduction in your health savings contribution? Visit your primary care provider (PCP) and complete your Health Risk Assessment (HRA). Your PCP must complete the HRA form with you. Return your HRA to Molina Healthcare of Michigan. Once we receive your HRA form, we will determine which incentive you qualify for. Visit your PCP at least 2 times per year to discuss any current illnesses and chronic conditions. We strongly encourage you to keep your appointments and checkups to help keep you healthy.

Cost Sharing: Some Members who are on the Healthy Michigan Plan will receive a bill for 'cost sharing'. Whether or not you pay cost sharing is dependent on your household income and the information you share with your case worker. If you owe any cost sharing, a bill will be sent to you from the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services. Once you receive this notice, you will have to send a monthly payment in the requested amount in order to receive the incentive. Make timely payments to the MI Health account. Even if you have an outstanding amount, you will not lose your healthcare coverage.

Not all Members will receive a bill. If you do, you may contact Michigan Enrolls to answer any questions you may have. Please call our Member Services department at (888) 898-7969, Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
