

Centennial Rewards Program

Every member in Centennial Care is enrolled in The Centennial Rewards Program. There is no sign-up required.

The Centennial Rewards Program allows you to earn reward points by taking steps to be healthy. You will get your Centennial Rewards Program catalog and/or Rewards Debit Card when you earn your first reward points.

Reward points can be used by making choices from a catalog or by using a Rewards Card. You can order catalog items through a website or by calling toll-free (877) 806-8964. Shipping costs will not apply.

The Centennial Reward Cards can be used at certain retail stores. You can buy products from any of these stores. Only products that are related to you and your family's health care, and fitness can be purchased with the Centennial Reward Card.

The Healthy Actions that are rewarded are (also called reward points).
