INLAND EMPIRE OPIOID CRISIS COALITION
Monthly New & Updates – September 2019

This is an advisory notification to Molina Healthcare of California (MHC) network providers regarding the Inland Empire Opioid Crisis Coalition (IEOCC).

BACKGROUND
The IEOCC is a learning and action network of professionals, institutions, county agencies, and community members working together to reduce opioid use and opioid related deaths in California's Riverside County and San Bernardino County. The IEOCC creates effective community collaborations between member organizations and individuals who need help with pain management and opioid use disorders. The coalition employs the values and techniques of harm reduction and integrated care. To learn more, please visit: https://www.ieocc.org.

FREE X-WAIVER TRAINING
Arrowhead Regional Medical Center (ARMC) is hosting a free X-Waiver Training on September 13th onsite located at 400 North Pepper. Colton, CA 92324 with Hannah Snyder, MD. The session will run from 9:00 AM - 1:30 PM. To attend please contact Wendy Martinez at martinezwe@armc.sbcounty.gov.

DRUGMAKER ORDERED TO PROVIDE FREE NALOXONE TO FIRST RESPONDERS
The California State Board of Pharmacy reached a settlement with the McKesson Corporation that will enforce the company to provide $1.5 million worth of free naloxone, an opioid overdose-reversing medication, to California first responders. The drugmaker has been reprimanded for failing to report suspicious orders of often abused opioid painkillers in connection with prior violations.
